

"Grown in Mississippi"

Our Entire Stock of Lumber Was Grown in Mississippi and Sawn in Mississippi

"BUY A THOUSAND FEET"

or more if you can--It is Cheaper and Better for Any Purpose. A Complete Stock of Windows, Doors, Paint Roofing, Shingles and Tile. No trouble to make estimates. Call on us.

W. S. Dolton Lumber Co.

YARD AND OFFICE NORTH END OF MAIN STREET. YAZOO CITY, MISS.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Jas. Lear is at home to spend the Christmas holidays with his father and sisters.

Miss Mary Montgomery, youngest daughter of Mr. L. G. Montgomery, will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents.

Mr. A. M. Payne, of Belzoni, was in the city last Thursday, coming down to attend the funeral of Mrs. C. E. Holmes.

Mr. S. S. Griffin, Jr., is at home from the A. & M. College where he is taking a special course in the engineering department.

Mr. Malcolm Lammons and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Shelly of the Short Creek community were in the city Wednesday making their Christmas purchases.

Miss Georgia McGraw, of Memphis, is at home with relatives, being called here on account of the continued illness of her brother's wife, Mrs. J. J. McGraw.

Mr. George Montgomery, who has been attending a Military school on the coast, is home to spend the Yule Tide with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Montgomery.

Mr. J. S. Williams, of Benton, was in the city transacting business Wednesday. Mr. Williams is devoting his entire time to farming on scientific and economical principles.

Rev. J. D. Ellis, who has been attending the annual conference of the Methodist Church at Columbia, arrived home Tuesday evening. We are glad to be able to state that he has been returned to the Woodville charge for another year at least.—Woodville Republican.

Miss Winnie Reiley spent several days in Carter last week visiting friends.

Some people will buy your Louisiana Molasses, but oh you Sorghum. We buy both.

FARMER'S PRODUCE CO.

Mrs. W. T. Hegman, Jr., and Miss Lizzie Hoover went up to Holly Bluff Monday morning to be present at the wedding of Miss Ruth Lillian Sharrbrough, to Mr. Rufus Nabers, Dec. 22.

Mrs. J. J. McGraw is still quite ill we are sorry to know at her home near the city. Mrs. McGraw is a most excellent young woman and her numerous friends throughout the county and city hope for a speedy recovery.

Miss Helen Carlross is at home to spend the holidays with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Caldwell. Miss Carlross has been in Laurel since last September teaching in the High School at that place.

Hon. R. C. Langford was in the city Monday winding up his business preparatory to moving to Benton where he will take active management of the Live Stock farm on which he is associated with Hon. E. R. Holmes. Mr. Langford expects to be fully established on the place by the first week in January and will give his entire time to the building up of a first-class live stock farm.

Mr. J. W. Drake who for the past few days has been visiting relatives and friends here and in Columbus, departed yesterday evening for Benton, Yazoo County, where he will spend the holidays with his two sons, F. M. and Albert Drake; the former is the efficient and accomplished principal of the County Agricultural High School of that county located there. Friends wish him the pleasure of his life on this visit.—Starkville News.

We will buy your eggs, not only when they are scarce, but at all times.

FARMER'S PRODUCE CO.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Miller, of Memphis, are spending the holidays with Mrs. Miller's parents Mr. and Mrs. Owen Brown.

Judge Geo. Anderson, of Vicksburg, was in the city Monday, having a case in the Chancery Court. He made the Herald office an appreciated call.

Farmers Produce Co.

Patronize your own home enterprise and help the people who help you. The Farmers Produce Co. was organized to help the farmers sell their produce to the very best advantage. Bring your produce to them and see what a good proposition they have to offer you. Mr. Gunst has associated with him Mr. Ed Warren, who was with L. G. and J. T. Montgomery for many years and knows the business thoroughly.

SONG OF THE WOODLAND.

(Written for the Herald.)

Oh, here's for a song of the woodland, Where the violets hide in spring. And the songbirds fly 'neath the clear, blue sky as the woods with their praises ring.

Oh, the city's all right with its noise and din—

For those who like it best.

Where the songbird builds its nest.

And here's for a song of the wildwood,

Where the primrose blooms in June,

And the dryads play

On a summer day

As the bees to the flowers croon.

Yes, the city's all right in its stifling heat,

For those who think it best.

But I'll turn my face to the wildwood,

When on a beauty quest.

And here's for a song of the woods

and fields,

When the golden rod's in flower,

And the corn of gold doth a fancy hold,

Within each sheltered bower.

Oh, the city's all right with it all in ing crowds

To those who know it best.

But give me a sight of the woods

and fields

In their Autumn garments drest.

Oh, here's for a song of the country,

Where the snow is on the ground,

And the flames leap higher

In the yuletide fire,

As the wind moans all around.

Yes, the city's all right in its dreary cold

For those who love it best.

But give me a taste of the country,

Where winter's a welcome guest.

—CELIA PARKS.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Birdsall left Wednesday evening for Bogalusa, La., to spend the holidays with relatives.

Mr. Willie Wise is home from New Orleans for the holidays, where he has been a student in the Tulane University.

Christmas With the Children of St. Clara's.

In the pretty little entertainment which was given Wednesday morning at St. Clara's Hall by the sisters for the children, the beautiful story of the first Christmas morn was illustrated by the children taking the different parts in the scene.

Then Old Santa was brought out in all his glory and the wondrous sack which he carries on his back was filled by fairy hands which had been busy all the year long while Old Santa reposed snugly in his north star home. Master Albert Lynch took the part of Santa Claus and was seated high on the throne, singing a Christmas carol. This young man has a very promising voice which in the years to come with the training which he will get under the care of the good sisters will be used many times for the cause of the One who gave us our Christmas.

The children all acted well in their parts and the Christmas carols were sung with feeling and expression. The farce which was intended to break the solemnity of the occasion brought down the house as the children took off the different characters seen in their relatives visiting the poor. Maude Hammill took the part of the widow with a large family of girls and boys who were all named respectfully for the places in which she had lived. Chas. Collins as the oldest boy and answering the sonorous name of Lumb for Columbus certainly knows how to take the part of the elder brother. The children all showed decided merit and reflected credit on the one who assisted them in presenting the wonderful story so beautifully.

Get a Useful Christmas Present for your Friend at a price that will suit your war-time pocket-book, at the Great Bankrupt Sale of Clothing and Gent's Furnishings, of the Wilson-Neely stock. The Lightcap stock is also included in the sale.

WANTED—To buy peanuts and WISE BROS.

Hotel Price Christmas Dinner

MENU

OYSTER COCKTAIL OYSTER STEW
CELERY OLIVES RADISHES SPRING ONIONS
BAKED TURKEY WITH OYSTER DRESSING
CRANBERRY SAUCE
ROAST LAMB WITH BROWN GRAVY
ASPARAGUS TIPS ON TOAST
IMPORTED FRENCH PEAS
CANDIED YAM POTATOES
GERMAN FISH PUDDING
CHICKEN SALAD SHRIMP SALAD
HOT CORN MUFFINS LEBANON BELLE BISCUIT
CHARLOTTE RUSSE WINTER AMBSOSIA
DOCTORED FRUIT CAKE
COFFEE COCA TEA MILK

Price 50 cents.

Mrs. R. Jones, of Fayette, returned to her home after a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. Dr. W. D. McCalip.

Some people will buy your peanuts, but oh, you Hay. We buy both.

FARMER'S PRODUCE CO.

Messrs. Alf Cooper and Leroy Cooper are at home for the Christmas time from the A. and M. College at Starkville.

C. A. Lightcap's Great Bankrupt Sale of the Wilson-Neely stock still continues and is thronged with bargain seekers. Call and see him.

Most any one will buy your peas. But oh, you corn. We buy all kinds of produce.

FARMER'S PRODUCE CO.

Ex-Gov. E. F. Noel came in on the train Monday morning to look after some legal business in the Chancery Court. Mr. Noel represented the estate of Mrs. Mary R. Miles in the suit Miles vs. King.

Misses Mary Frances Muse, Cora Johnston and Josie Manning came in on the 7 o'clock train Tuesday night from Columbus where they had been attending school at I. L. and C.

Most of the public school teachers have gone to their respective homes or to visit relatives during the holidays. Miss Rosenborough to Senatobia, Miss Helen Weir to Starkville, Miss McDaniels to Fayette, Miss Thompson to Meridian, Miss Whitehead with her sister, will spend the holidays with friends at Laurel, Miss.

Judge and Mrs. F. M. Ethridge, of Dallas, Texas, spent several days in the city this week visiting Mr. John Lear and family. Mrs. Ethridge is pleasantly remembered as Miss Catherine Stigler, who won the hearts of the Yazoo People with her sweet voice, which was heard in many social functions as well as the churches of the city.

Farmers Produce Co.

Yazoo City, Miss.

The Farmers Produce Co. wants to have a little Heart-to-Heart talk with the Producers.

Do you know that we must have your co-operation for us to succeed? Do you know that for you to make a success of diversifying you must help us to succeed?

We are now investigating and doing our best to find a money crop for you to plant next Spring. Later we will give you the benefit of our investigation and will guarantee you a market for same.

Remember, we buy Peas, Corn, Hay, Peanuts, Syrup, Sorghum and, everything being equal, Sell US your Produce and thereby assure yourself of a sure market.

THE FARMERS PRODUCE CO.,

E. F. Warren.

R. Gunst, Manager.

REDUCED RATES

FOR THE

HOLIDAYS

Round Trip Rates Approximately ONE AND ONE-THIRD FARE plus 25 cents, to all points on the

ILLINOIS CENTRAL

AND THE

YAZOO & MISS. VALLEY

Railroads South of the Ohio River.

Tickets on sale Dec. 23, 24, 25, 31, and Jan. 1
Return Limit Jan. 4, 1915.

Reduced Rates will also be in effect to various points in Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, South Dakota and Wisconsin.

Ask our Ticket Agent for further particulars.
G. H. BOWER, General Passenger Agent